Judges' Bios:

Mary Corboy

Mary is the Co-founder and Chief Farm Hand of Greensgrow Farms. Mary Corboy is a home-grown superstar who resides right here in Philadelphia. Mary is also the founder of the Neighborhood Urban Agriculture Coalition, Co-Founder of the Farmers Market Alliance and was recently named on Organic Style magazine's top 50 "Environmental Power List" and has been featured on the TV shows, Growing A Greener World & GardenSmart. Mary has a cat named Blanche who has loads of attitude. See: greengrow.com for more.

Kyle Lewis

Kyle manages events such as the Mayors Centenarian Celebration, Annual Police & Fire Memorial Service, and numerous press announcements. She also coordinates and consults on over 100 events throughout the City annually, and oversees the Operations for the Philadelphia Marathon Weekend encompassing 4 race events with over 25,000 participants and 60,000 spectators. Kyle makes the Philadelphia smile and please don't ask her to fix your parking ticket.

Bob Lowery

Bob leads the business development efforts for DIVE, the Visual Effects and Film Finishing division of Shooters Post and Transfer. Some of DIVE's recent credits include The Road, Fair Game, The Last Airbender & I Am Number Four. DIVE is currently finishing up the VFX on SAFE, which was shot in Philadelphia. Lowery is also an accomplished musician. His music has been featured on both radio and television. I hear that Bob can do everything he sets his mind to.

Kevin May

A well-known local sushi lover and Senior Consultant Solutions³ Cubed – LLC

Kevin is celebrating his second year as a sushi judge for this annual contest. He secretly waits all year for this special day!

Leo Osako

Leo is an account leader at Carmichael Lynch and is the onsite agency representative at Subaru of America. Leo coordinates communication between Subaru and the agency on national advertising, launch strategy and competitive research. I've never seen Leo go home.
